WHY WE CAN'T WAIT

WITH AN AFTERWORD BY REVEREND
JESSE L. JACKSON, SR.

Martin Luther King, Jr.

WINNER OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

In 1963, Birmingham, Alabama, was perhaps the most racially segregated city in the United States. The campaign launched by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and the civil-rights movement on the segregated streets of Birmingham demonstrated to the world the power of nonviolent direct action. In this remarkable book, Dr. King recounts the story of Birmingham in vivid detail, tracing the history of the struggle for civil rights back to its beginnings more than three centuries ago and looking to the future, assessing the work to be done beyond Birmingham to bring about full equality for African-Americans. Above all, Dr. King offers an eloquent and penetrating analysis of the events and pressures that propelled the civil rights movement from lunch-counter sit-ins and prayer marches to the forefront of American consciousness.

Since its publication, Why We Can't Wait has become an indisputable classic and an enduring testament to the wise and courageous vision of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Reverend Jesse L. Jackson, Sr., is the founder and president of the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition, an organization committed to fighting for social, political, and economic justice for people of all races, genders, and creeds. A two-time candidate for president of the United States (1984, 1988), Rev. Jackson has been called the "conscience of the nation." Rev. Jackson is also renowned for
